About Me

NAME

Sarah Quintanar

Sarah.Quintanar@unt.edu

TITLE

Interim Chair & Clinical Associate Professor

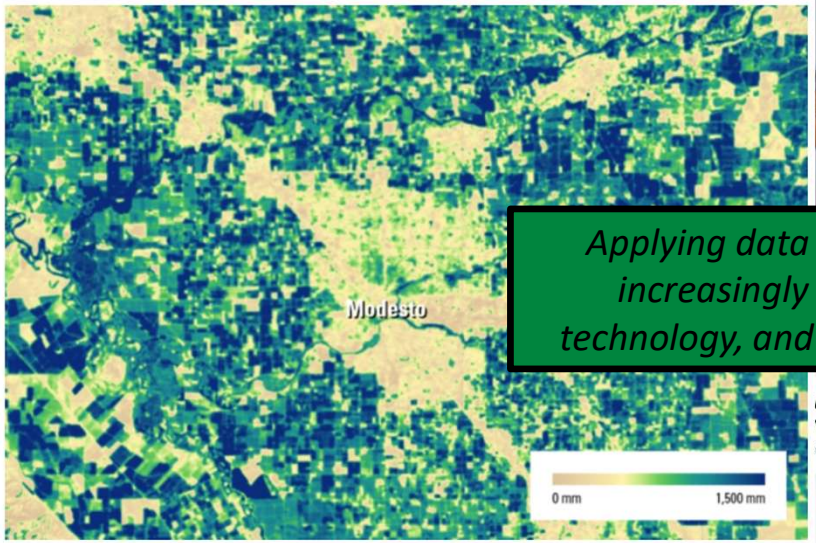

YEARS AT UNT

4th year at UNT

RESEARCH FOCUS AREAS

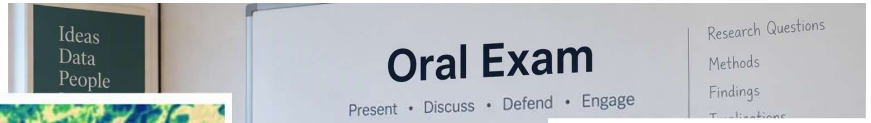

- Wine, Sports, and Entertainment - economics & industry analytics
- Applied Policy Evaluation – especially unintended policy impacts
- Economic development and economic impact
- AI within education and as a tool for information dispersion

A Few Examples

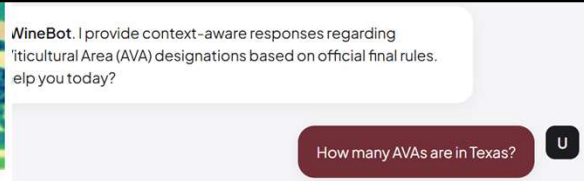

Sources/Usage: Public Domain. [View Media Details]

This image is an example of evapotranspiration mapping, centered on Modesto, California, which contains the Gallo Winery headquarters. The Applying data analytics, econometrics, experimental design, and increasingly machine learning to understand how incentives, technology, and policy shape human behavior and decision-making.

established American Viticultural Areas (AVAs) in Texas:

1. Mesilla Valley (27 CFR § 9.100, established February 14, 1985)
2. Bell Mountain (27 CFR § 9.55, established October 10, 1986)
3. Fredericksburg in the Texas Hill Country (27 CFR § 9.125, established December 22, 1988)
4. Texas Hill Country (27 CFR § 9.136, established November 29, 1991)
5. Escondido Valley (27 CFR § 9.141, established May 15, 1992)
6. Texas High Plains (27 CFR § 9.144, established March 2, 1993)
7. Texas Davis Mountains (27 CFR § 9.155, established March 11, 1998)
8. Texoma (27 CFR § 9.185, established December 7, 2005)

(Note: Some of these straddle a state line and are also counted under a

